(U) CALIFORNIA(U) Laguna Beach – Laguna Beach School Locked Down After Boat Comes Ashore

(U) Laguna Beach police and US Border Patrol officers are continuing to search for five men from Mexico who are believed to have been aboard a panga-style boat that went ashore at Crystal Cove State Park on yesterday morning, authorities said. Four men who authorities said also were onboard were located and taken to a nearby Border Patrol facility for processing. Newport Beach police, an Orange County Sheriff's Department helicopter crew, and a Laguna Beach police drone equipped with infrared technology are helping with the search. In response, Laguna Beach Unified School District officials placed El Morro Elementary School on lockdown for about two hours.

UNCLASSIFIED//FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY(U) Mexico – Two Members of Jalisco New Generation Cartel Nabbed in Mexico

(U) Mexico City – Mexican authorities have arrested two members of the Jalisco New Generation cartel, one of Mexico's most violent drug gangs. Omar Hamid Garcia, the head of the federal attorney general's criminal investigation unit, says marines and federal agents arrested Sergio Alan Caro Uribe and Juan Francisco Aguilar Santana, also known as "Juan Pistolas." Aguilar Santana was allegedly leader of a team of hit men and was in charge of drug and weapons distribution and recruitment for the cartel.

(U) Netherlands – Dutch Detain Three Men Suspected of ISIS Links

(U) Amsterdam – Dutch authorities have detained three men with suspected links to ISIS based on DNA evidence found on arms found at a French hideout. A fourth suspect linked to the case was already in a Dutch jail because of an unrelated incident. The Dutch prosecution office said the arrests of the three were linked to an apartment in the Paris suburb of Argenteuil that was rented by a French extremist. Authorities found a big arms cache there on 24 March 2016, two days after the Brussels attacks that killed 32 people. Authorities believed the discovery had averted another extremist attack.
